

Dr Loni Loftus PhD, MSc, BSc(Hons), SFHEA, CCAB

Loni is a Certificated Clinical Animal Behaviourist specialising in horses, cats and dogs. She gained her professional accreditation with the Animal Behaviour and Training Council following successfully completing an MSc in Applied Animal Behaviour and Welfare at Newcastle University, followed by achieving her CCAB accreditation and has been working in the field of animal behaviour for over 15 years. She currently runs her own clinical behaviour referral practice for horses, dogs and cats and sees cases for Donovan Veterinary Behaviour Practice.

Loni also holds a BSc(Hons) in Equine science and is a Senior Fellow of the Higher Education Academy. Her PhD from Newcastle University was in the field of positive affective state in equines and Loni is a lecturer in Clinical Animal Behaviour at the Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies – University of Edinburgh.

Loni is a full member of the Association of Pet Behaviour Counsellors, a Certificated member and Director of the Fellowship of Animal Behaviour Clinicians and an IAABC Certified Dog and Horse Behaviour Consultant.

Presentation title

“Tell me what you pay attention to, and I will tell you who you are” – investigating individual difference (personality) in horses.

This presentation will consider individual difference (personality) in horses in relation to how we can evaluate our interactions with them in everyday life and specifically within training and behaviour modification protocols.